

Schedule interview
Contact: Artes de la Rosa
Rose Marine Theater
1440 N. Main Street
Fort Worth, TX 76164
Info@ArtesdeLaRosa.org
(817) 624-8333

Immediate Press Release

Dolores The Movie – Directed by Peter Bratt

The Artes de la Rosa Board of Directors and its Committee Members are honored to welcome Dolores Huerta and the premier of her autobiographical documentary at the Historic Rose Marine Theater in the Northside Area in Fort Worth, on Thursday, October 12, 2017. A VIP Reception with a Meet & Greet in honor, of Ms. Dolores Huerta – will be a 6 p.m. for event sponsors.

An equal partner in co-founding the first farm workers union with Cesar Chavez, and a consistent advocate for the rights of others. Dolores Huerta is among one of the most important, yet least known, activists in American history. An equal partner in co-founding the first farm workers unions with Cesar Chavez, her enormous contributions have gone largely unrecognized. Dolores tirelessly led the fight for racial and labor justice alongside Chavez, becoming one of the most defiant feminists of the twentieth century-- and she continues the fight to this day, at 87. With intimate and unprecedented access to this intensely private mother to eleven, the film reveals the raw, personal stakes involved in committing one's life. Review the trailer of Dolores the Movie- <https://www.doloresthemovie.com/#screenings>

Rose Herrera a close friend of Dolores Huerta was more than willing and open to share her heart felt thoughts about Ms. Huerta, Ms. Herrera quoted: "It's my honor to state the Dolores Huerta documentary will give a unique glimpse and understanding into the struggle and history of the Chicano movement. Some will relive history, and others will see and hear history as they never heard it before. It's not often we have an opportunity to meet and hear from legends in our culture. Therefore, I urge everyone, not to miss their chance to meet the woman who continued to be integral part of the Chicano Movement and the United Farmworkers Union".

Tania Castillo-Queppet, Board President-Artes de la Rosa, quoted: "As I watched the movie trailer of the long overdue film, I became overwhelmed with pride of my Mexican American Heritage, Dolores Huerta is an inspiration to many, especially to Latina women. I am so honored to be part of this premier here at the Rose Marine Theater which is celebrating 100 years of bringing Cinema and the Arts to the Latino Community. I look forward to viewing this film in its entirety and welcoming Ms. Huerta back to Fort Worth".

Artes de la Rosa Board of Directors invite you to be a part of this history in the making, tickets and sponsorship opportunities are available by calling Artes de la Rosa (817) 624-8333 or info@artedelarosa.org

###